OFFICE OF THE PRIVATE SECRETARY

22 OCT. 1915
TO H. H. THE MAH

To

His Highness the Maharaja

Sri Krishna Rajendra Wadeyar Bahadur,

G.C.S.I.,

MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

THE MEMORIAL OF MR. F. R. SELL, M.A. (OXON.), PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH IN THE CENTRAL COLLEGE, BANGALORE.

MAY it please Your Highness to peruse and consider this memorial setting forth the details of the case in the matter of the grade promotion of Your Highness' memorialist.

2. Your Highness' memorialist joined service in October, 1904, under the dewanship of the late Sir P. N. Krishnamurti on a fixed pay of Rs. 400 per mensem for the first three years when he was on probation. On the expiry of that period, he was confirmed in the service and placed substantively in the grade Rs. 400—50—700, so that for his first four years of service his pay was Rs. 400 per mensem. Your Highness' memorialist reached his maximum of Rs. 700 per mensem on 1st November, 1913, but on 1st November, 1914, after nine years' service, was not granted promotion to the grade Rs. 500—50—1,000. Before the comparatively recent creation of this grade promotion would have been into the old grade A-1 Rs. 700—50—1,000.

3. In the recent reorganization of the Educational Service, there were six places allotted to this grade Rs. 500—50—1,000. Your Highness' memorialist hoped that his long and steady work at the Central College would have secured his promotion to the place left vacant by the resignation of Mr. McCombe, for which vacancy he put in a formal application. However, two other gentlemen were entertained last year in that grade and so Your Highness' memorialist saw his promotion blocked and found himself with ten years' service made junior to newly joined men filling posts of exactly similar duties.

4. At the date of his joining service in 1904 this grade Rs. 500—50—1,000 did not exist; nor did it exist at the date of his confirmation in the service but was part of the scheme drawn up later, viz. in March, 1908, by the Dewan Mr. V. P. Madhava Rao, C.I.E. Into this grade accordingly the Europeans subsequently appointed, viz. Messrs. Metcalfe, Usher, McCombe, McAlpine, Mackintosh were placed.

5. Your Highness' memorialist, moreover, does not stand in the Service Gazette at the head of the grade A-2 because Mr. C. Ramalingam Reddy in 1909 passed from his position as assistant to the Inspector-General of Education on a fixed pay of Rs. 500 to a post as Professor of English in the Maharaja's College, Mysore, and when graded did not start at the foot of the ladder in the grade Rs. 400—50—700 but from his particular pay at the time (Rs. 500)—an accident that makes him technically senior in the Service Gazette though four years junior in point of service.

6. Promotion was granted in due course to all European officers who joined service previously to Your Highness' memorialist, who, on entering the service understood it to be the usual custom and practice [there being then no fixed number of places in the first grade Rs. 700—50—1,000] that good work meant promotion when the upper limit of the second grade was reached. But under the recent reorganization scheme when the number of places in the newly made first grade Rs. 500—50—1,000 was limited to six and when the two existing vacancies were filled by new-comers from Europe because of the admitted difficulty of getting men of the right calibre for less attractive prospects Your Highness' memorialist found himself blocked with no prospects of securing the promotion which he had earnestly looked for after so many years of service.

7. Your Highness' memorialist feels constrained to submit this memorial for Your Highness' gracious consideration because November 1st, 1915, will mark the beginning of the third year in which his pay stands stationary at Rs. 700 per mensem. In order to obviate the technical difficulties of immediate promotion into the grade Rs. 500—50—1,000, the places in which are all filled at this moment, Your Highness' memorialist respectfully begs to be placed in this grade as supernumerary to be absorbed into the first vacancy that occurs.

For which act of grace Your Highness' memorialist will for ever be grateful.
